What to Wear in Santorini, Greece

Santorini is one of the most beautiful places to visit. To be perfectly honest, you can't really go wrong with any of the Greek Islands, however, Santorini is a place made for the romantics and is a wonderful honeymoon destination or couple's getaway.

The crisp white buildings and blue domes on the hills with panoramic views of the ocean are a photographer's dream... so you can imagine that I wanted outfits to match the scenery!

While most of the days on Santorini can be spent wandering around the small town of Oia — popping into restaurants and exploring nooks and crannies — you should also mix in a bit of adventure with a self-guided ATV ride while you're there!

When Meyer and I went to Santorini it was in July and incredibly warm, so a good portion of our time was spent relaxing by the pool. The summer is quite crowded as that is peak season, but if you're prepared for that and book things ahead of time, you should be perfectly fine.

Obviously, the weather will play a factor in what you're packing — but if you're going to Santorini from late spring to early fall, you should be fine with mainly "beachy" attire. Think sundresses, several bikinis, shorts and cute tops, along with hats and sandals.

Here's my Santorini, Greece outfit inspiration!

Sundresses + Mix and Match Outfits

Sundresses are a staple for me when traveling around Greece! From short flouncy ones to long ones, I love how effortless they are and that you can pair them with sandals, or, if you're going out for dinner you could dress them up a bit.

Bringing along a few pieces that you can mix and match or dress up — especially for romantic dinners — is super helpful!

Shorts + Tops

A number of days involved us hanging out by the pool or adventuring around the island. Casual shorts and tops that you can throw on while still looking cute are a definite must!

Bikinis + Swimwear

As some of the days are spent pretty much at the pool — cute swimwear is a must! While the floral suits I'm wearing above have since sold out.

Hats + Sandals

While hats aren't the easiest thing to travel with, I always make a point to bring them as they can really change up an outfit and are great for blocking out some of the harsh rays!

About me

Hi, I'm Kiki, a California native, who left my career in corporate wealth management six years ago to embark on a summer of soul searching that would change the course of my life forever.

Like many people, I was taught to go to college, get a job, get married, have kids and live happily ever after. Not once did I consider that chasing the societal idea of "success" would lead me to an unfulfilling and unhappy life. Back in 2011, I took a hiatus from my career and spent 3 months traveling through Australia, Thailand, Cambodia, Vietnam, Bali and New Zealand and experienced the empowerment of solo travel for the first time.

When planning a trip to Australia, Sydney Harbor Bridge may be the first thing to come to mind, or you might picture the iconic wildlife such as kangaroos, koalas, or echidnas.

However there's so much more to OZ, and you could spend weeks (or months) exploring and still not see it all! Whether you're looking for a great brunch spot, a beautiful place to hike, or a chance to meet some koalas, there is a place that's perfect for you.

As you plan your first trip to Australia, you'll want to see these 10 tips to make it a breeze. And, for those that are looking to go on a Working Holiday visa — make sure to check this out!

Here's a list of ten places in Australia that you should visit (that aren't Sydney)!

Hobart, Tasmania

Hobart is Tasmania's capital city and it's full of old buildings and beautiful outdoor attractions. Stop by the award-winning Salamanca Market and pick up some locally made bath and body products, artwork, and clothing, amongst other things.

If you're more of an outdoorsy type, you won't be disappointed by all of the incredible opportunities to go hiking and experience the stunning landscape of the area. Spend a day exploring Freycinet National Park or go hiking at the Bay of Fires.

If you're a foodie, one of the guided food tours of Bruny Island is a can't-miss excursion as well!

If you're making the trip to Hobart, make sure to rent a car and book a stay at some of the incredible Airbnbs in the area. Captains Rest in Strahan is an incredible waterfront private cabin with a kitchenette. It's a great place for a relaxing and unique environment.

Whatever you choose to do in Hobart, you'll appreciate this off-the-beaten-path destination!

Melbourne, Victoria

Melbourne, Victoria (pronounced "Mel-bin" by locals) will grace most Australia bucket lists, and when you visit you'll see why! It's slightly more urban than other destinations on this list and has a thriving coffee and brunch culture.

It's also a great home base if you're interested in taking some day trips.

Just a few minutes away from the city center lies the 12 Apostles. These limestone stone stacks jut out from the ocean. Contrary to what their name might suggest, they have only ever been eight "apostles". One collapsed in 2005, but you can still see the rest of them today!

Daintree, Queensland

If you're looking to experience the natural beauty of Australia and want to see the rainforests and wildlife up close, Daintree, Queensland is your best bet! You can go snorkeling or scuba diving near the famous Great Barrier Reef.

For a truly unique place to stay, consider the Daintree Ecot lodge. Instead of a standard room, you can stay in one of the 15 treehouses located throughout the property.

It's located in the heart of the Daintree Rainforest and is a great place to disconnect and enjoy the lush green environment.

You can have dinner on the balcony of the Julymba Restaurant, overlooking a little lagoon. Definitely making a booking to try their Degustation Menu, which highlights flavors from the local area and surrounding farms. It's a true culinary experience!
